Below you will find the membership costs (including taxes and curling Quebec fees) for this season. Your membership fees, as well as purchases that you make at the club, help to pay for the club's ice equipment. This year we are trying a new rookie rate you must be new to curling to take advantage of this discount.

Adult	$250
Shareholders	$230
Social	$25
Students (with card)	$115
Rookie curler	$150 (New Curler)
Junior	$45 (12 years old and over) and $35 (under 12)

Adult membership includes social membership for the member's spouse. Shareholders have a $20 rebate. The student membership card is for students 16-25 years of age, who wish to play in the adult league. There will be a $20 late fee, if your membership payment is made after November 4th. Please contact Albert Gillim (879-7798) for more information. You can send your membership payment by mail. Checks should be made payable to Danville Curling Club and sent to the address at the beginning of the newsletter. Please remember that paying membership fees on time help to start off the season right.
